4.4 Seller may not assign any moneys due or which are to become due under the Agreement.

5. DELIVERY

5.1 Delivery takes place on agreed ICC INCOTERMS. If no INCOTERMS apply, delivery shall be understood to occur at the moment unloading has finished taking place at the location designated by Buyer.

5.2 Time of delivery of the Goods and of performance of the Services is of the essence and shall start to run from the date of acceptance by the Seller of the Purchase Order or the date on which the Seller is placed in possession of such information and drawings as may be necessary to enable him to start work on the Goods or the Services, whichever may be the later.

5.3 Exceeding the completion deadlines for the execution of the Services or delivery dates of the Goods shall automatically result in the application of a penalty equal to 1% of the total amount of the Purchase Order per working day of delay, capped at 10% of the total amount of the Purchase Order. This penalty may not under any circumstances be considered as a waiver of the right to terminate the Purchase Order according to art.14.2 or to claim additional compensation for any loss suffered by the Buyer.

5.4 Delivery of Goods in instalments shall be permitted only with the consent of the Buyer and such permission, if given, shall not entitle the Seller to claim payment prior to completion of the Agreement unless the Buyer has agreed in writing.

6.3 The Seller shall at all times make technically feasible changes in or additions to agreed Goods or Services, as desired by Buyer.

6.4 Changes and additions shall not lead to an increase in the agreed price or an extension of the agreed time of delivery unless and to the extent reasonable and provided that within five (5) days after the request of Buyer for such changes or additions the Seller has made a written proposal to Buyer with respect to an increase or an extension before the execution of said changes or additions and also provided that Buyer has agreed in writing with the changes and additions as well as the indicated price by Seller before they are executed.

6.5 Buyer is entitled to rescind or terminate the Agreement in whole or in part if implementation of the changes or additions it desires does not appear to be possible on conditions acceptable to it. Seller, at its own expense, at Buyer's option, shall correct by (i) repair, (ii) replacement or (iii) reimbursement such breach as soon as possible, but not more than ten (10) days after written notice from Buyer. If the breach is not so corrected, then Buyer, at its option, shall have the same options again. If a part of the Goods and/or Services is replaced, repaired or modified, the warranties apply under the same conditions from the date of receipt of the replaced, repaired or modified Goods and/or Services.

12.2 The Seller hereby agrees to indemnify and hold the Buyer, its subsidiaries and the officers, directors and employees of the Buyer harmless from and against any and all actual or alleged claims, demands, loss, damage, liabilities, settlement amounts, costs or expenses whatsoever (including court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs) arising from, (a) a breach of Seller under the Agreement, which breach shall include, without limitation, (i) a defect occurring in the manufacture, processing, packaging or labelling of the Goods, and (ii) a breach of any of the warranties set out under articles 2, 7.4 and 11.2; (b) injury to property or persons arising out of the act or omission or the negligence of the Seller, its employees, servants, agents, sub-contractors or others in connection with the performance of the Agreement save in so far as the same is attributable solely to the negligence of the Buyer or its employees, servants, agents or sub-contractors.

14. SUSPENSION/RESCISSION/TERMINATION

14.1 Buyer is authorised to suspend its obligations pursuant to the Agreement or to rescind or terminate the Agreement in whole or in part (hereafter: rescission) by means of a written declaration and without previous notice of default, if and insofar as the Seller does not, does not in a timely fashion, or does not adequately fulfil any obligation toward Buyer, as well as in case of moratorium or bankruptcy of the Seller, attachment of (a part of) its company property or goods intended for the implementation of the Agreement, and closing down or liquidation of its business. In that case, Buyer is only obligated to compensate the Seller at the pro-rata price for the Goods or Services already delivered, but only insofar as the Services delivered were also in fact useful to Buyer, and/or Buyer desires to keep the Goods, all this without prejudice to Buyer's right to damages to which it is entitled by virtue of article 12.

14.2 Failure to fulfil in a timely fashion as referred to in article 14.1 also occurs if there is a delay in production or implementation plans received or stipulated by Buyer, or if under the circumstances, the presumption is reasonably justified that a delay shall take place in the execution of any (part of an) obligation under the Agreement.

14.3 Buyer is authorised to rescind the Agreement in whole or in part by means of a written declaration if the contract with its own buyer or customer for whose benefit the Agreement with the Seller was solely entered into is for whatever reason rescinded, terminated or suspended in whole or in part. 14.4 If Buyer or the Seller is prevented from fulfilling the Agreement for more than thirty (30) days by force majeure, both parties are entitled to rescind the Agreement by means of a written declaration of rescission, against compensation at the pro-rata price for the Goods or Services already delivered.

14.5 Apart from the above-mentioned cases, Buyer is authorised to rescind the Agreement by means of a written declaration, against payment at the pro-rata price for the Goods or Services already delivered, and if the Seller establishes that it has thereby suffered damage or loss, increased by a maximum of ten percent (10%) of the remaining agreed price as compensation for this damage and loss (lost profits included therein). Any claim of the Seller to further supplementary or substitute damages are excluded.

15. DISPUTES AND APPLICABLE LAW

15.1 All disputes existing between the parties shall be heard exclusively by the competent court of the registered seat of the Buyer, unless Buyer prefers another competent forum.

15.2 The Agreement between Buyer and Seller is subject to the law of the country of the Buyer.

16. SUSTAINABILITY

The Buyer firmly expects the Seller to adhere to these ESG Standards and urges the Seller to ensure that all its subcontractors, regardless of tier, also strictly follow these ESG standards. The Buyer retains the right to verify the Seller's compliance with the mentioned ESG Standards, either directly or through third parties appointed by the Buyer, after providing prior notice. Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available to the Buyer, any breach of this article is deemed to be a breach of the Agreement which shall entitle the Buyer to terminate the Agreement for cause according to article 14.1.

17. PRIVACY & COMPLIANCE

17.1 Seller warrants that it complies with all applicable laws, rules, orders and regulations covering the delivery of the Goods and/or performance of the Services.

17.2 The Seller shall comply with all applicable (inter)national privacy laws, rules and regulations and standards in connection with the performance of the Agreement. The Seller expressly warrants neither to process any personal data for its own purpose nor to involve any subcontractors in processing any personal data without prior written consent of the Buyer. The Buyer is entitled to audit the Seller's compliance with these privacy laws, including without limitation, Seller's obligation to take appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect the personal data involved. The Seller shall contribute and cooperate to the execution of such an audit and shall insure that its subcontractors will contribute and cooperate as determined necessary by the Buyer.

17.3 Seller agrees to comply with financial, economic and trade sanctions (“Restrictive Measures”) laws and regulations enforced by the European Union, the United States and the Security Council of the United Nations, among others, which may apply from time to time. Seller shall not supply the Goods from countries or persons that are sanctioned by the Restrictive Measures.

18. CONFIDENTIALITY

Seller shall not disclose any technical, commercial, organizational, scientific, business information, or Intellectual Property Rights of Buyer (“Confidential Information”), disclosed to, learned by, or developed by it, its employees or agents under the Agreement. In addition Seller shall (i) not use the Confidential Information other than to fulfil its obligations under the Agreement; (ii) not allow access to the Confidential Information to personnel who do not need obligations hereunder and; (iii) protect the Confidential Information with at least the same level of care as it uses for its own confidential information of a similar nature but not less than a reasonable level of care.

19. GENERAL

19.1 Failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right or power under the Agreement shall not operate as a waiver nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other power right or privilege.

19.2 Should any part of the Agreement be held unenforceable or in conflict with the applicable laws or regulations of any jurisdiction, the invalid or unenforceable part or provision shall be replaced with a provision which accomplishes, to the extent possible, the original business purpose of such part or provision in a valid and enforceable manner, and the remainder of the Agreement shall remain binding upon the parties.
